The grades for individual units counting towards the overall result are weighted according to the credit rating of the unit. For undergraduate courses, the assessment classification is based only on the final year; for postgraduate courses, the assessment classification is based on the final major project unit and/or dissertation unit.

Standard Notes:

- All units listed were successfully completed on the first attempt except where indicated by an asterisk grade and mark. Grades marked with a C indicate credit awarded under the University's rules on compensation.
- Where the Exam Board has exercised its right to adjust a classification they do not adjust actual unit marks. For this reason the marks shown above may not necessarily compute to the classification shown.
- Units for which the student was accredited on the basis of prior (or experiential) learning are indicated by the acronym APL instead of a grade.
- Units for which the student was accredited on the basis of an international or Erasmus exchange period are indicated by the acronym EXCH instead of a grade. Please refer to the host institution's Transcript of Records
